ABOUT THE COLLEGE

CSI College of Engineering (CSICE), an autonomous institution established in 1998 in Ketti, by the CSI Coimbatore Diocese, is dedicated to academic excellence and innovation. Affiliated with Anna University, approved by AICTE, and accredited by NAAC, the college offers seven undergraduate programmes and one postgraduate programme. The college focuses on empowering the people of the Nilgiris region and is actively involved in research, innovation, product development, and entrepreneurship. Its notable achievement include publications in reputed journals, success in hackathons, start-up initiatives, NPTEL certifications, patents, and research grants from DST, SERB, and TNSCST. A commitment to quality education, a strong placement record, industrial collaborations, and a global alumni network further enhance the reputation of the institution.
